Supplementary Case Record: Arrest and Bail Particulars

Case ID LL-CR-2026-014 | Matter: Theft of a laptop from a private office | Record date: 9 October 2026

FICTIONAL DEMONSTRATION DOCUMENT. All people, places, numbers and dates are invented for software testing. This is not a real case and not legal advice.

1. Case identification

Case ID: LL-CR-2026-014

Court: Court of the Metropolitan Magistrate, Chennai (fictional venue label for demonstration)

FIR number: FIR No. 0142/2026

Police station: Harbor View Police Station, Chennai (fictional)

Date FIR registered: 19 September 2026

Offence registered in the FIR: Section 303(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 (theft)

Complainant: Arun Mehta

Applicant (accused): Manoj Verma

Respondent: State, represented by the Public Prosecutor

Investigating officer: Sub-Inspector R. Anand, Harbor View Police Station

2. Allegation as recorded in the FIR

FIR No. 0142/2026 records that the complainant Arun Mehta reported one company laptop missing from Room 304 of Harbor View Business Centre, Chennai, on the evening of 18 September 2026, between about 20:55 and 21:25.

FIR No. 0142/2026 states the estimated value of the missing laptop as Rs. 85,000.

FIR No. 0142/2026 did not name any accused when it was registered. Manoj Verma was identified later during the investigation.

3. Arrest, custody and recovery timeline

On 19 September 2026, Sub-Inspector R. Anand seized the CCTV footage of the third-floor corridor of Harbor View Business Centre in connection with FIR No. 0142/2026.

On 20 September 2026 at 10:30, Harbor View Police Station arrested Manoj Verma at his residence.

On 21 September 2026, Manoj Verma was produced before the Metropolitan Magistrate, who granted police custody for two days.

On 22 September 2026, the police recovered the missing laptop from an unclaimed-parcel shelf at the ground-floor reception of Harbor View Business Centre. The recovery memo does not record the laptop being found in the possession or residence of Manoj Verma.

On 23 September 2026, Manoj Verma was sent to judicial custody. The name of the prison is not stated in this record.

On 29 September 2026, the laptop was handed back to the complainant Arun Mehta's employer under an interim custody order.

On 7 October 2026, the Magistrate extended the judicial custody of Manoj Verma until 21 October 2026.

On 8 October 2026, the police verification report recorded that no previous criminal case is registered against Manoj Verma.

As of 9 October 2026, Manoj Verma has been in custody for 19 days since his arrest on 20 September 2026.

4. Status of the investigation

As of 9 October 2026, no chargesheet has been filed in FIR No. 0142/2026.

The statements of the complainant Arun Mehta and of the witnesses Priya Nair, Rohan Das and Kiran Rao have been recorded by Sub-Inspector R. Anand.

The statement of the security guard Rohan Das describes a person carrying a black backpack near the third-floor lift at 21:12 on 18 September 2026. The statement of Rohan Das does not name Manoj Verma.

The case diary extract dated 7 October 2026 records that the laptop has been recovered and that the CCTV footage is held by the police.

5. Personal particulars of the applicant

Manoj Verma is 29 years old and is the son of Ramesh Verma.

Manoj Verma has lived at 14 Lakeview Street, Adyar, Chennai (fictional address) for 11 years.

Manoj Verma works as a contract IT support technician with Nexa Support Services (fictional vendor) and holds a diploma in computer engineering.

Manoj Verma lives with his parents and his wife, and he is the only earning member of his family.

Manoj Verma does not hold a passport.

6. Facts relevant to the grounds for bail

Fact 1 (fixed residence): Manoj Verma has a fixed residence at 14 Lakeview Street, Adyar, Chennai, where he has lived for 11 years.

Fact 2 (no previous case): The police verification report dated 8 October 2026 records that no previous criminal case is registered against Manoj Verma.

Fact 3 (recovery complete): The laptop was recovered on 22 September 2026 and returned to the complainant's employer on 29 September 2026.

Fact 4 (evidence secured): The CCTV footage of the third-floor corridor is already held by the police, and the witness statements have been recorded.

Fact 5 (investigation stage): No chargesheet has been filed as of 9 October 2026, and Manoj Verma has been in custody for 19 days.

Fact 6 (family dependence): Manoj Verma is the only earning member of a family of four, including his parents and his wife.

Fact 7 (offence registered): The FIR registers the offence under Section 303(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023. The bail provisions are not reproduced in this record and must be taken from the statute documents.

7. Position of the applicant (allegation, not proven)

Manoj Verma states that he held authorised access to the third-floor corridor as part of his vendor duties, that he carried a black backpack containing his work tools on 18 September 2026, and that he denies taking the laptop.

These statements are the position of Manoj Verma. Nothing in this record establishes that Manoj Verma is guilty or innocent.

8. Proposed conditions and surety

Ramesh Verma, aged 58, a retired government clerk and the father of Manoj Verma, is willing to stand surety for Rs. 50,000.

Manoj Verma offers to report to Harbor View Police Station every Monday, not to contact the witnesses, not to leave Chennai without the permission of the court, and to cooperate with the investigation.